Can We Make Friends with a Baby Robot?

2

What does a baby robot eat? Do you think a baby robot would like to play with children like us? Would it like to be with other robots?

John and Cathy are in their garden. 'Look,' says Cathy, 'there is something in the big basket under the apple tree. Let's go and find out what it is.' John and Cathy run towards the apple tree.

There is a bundle in the basket. John picks it up. 'Is it a baby?' asks Cathy. John removes the cloth, unwraps the bundle, and says, 'Yes, it is a baby—but it is a baby robot.'

The children are excited. 'Let's show him to Mother,' says Cathy. They carry the baby robot to the dining room.
